

the Fellowship of Independent
Evangelical Churches

Leadership in Lockdown

the Fellowship of Independent
Evangelical Churches

Psalm 128: The 'Prosperity Gospel' of Restored Covenant Blessings

- God will bless those who fear and obey him
- God will bless them with fruitful prosperity and peace
- God is blessing because Jesus perfectly feared and obeyed the Father
- Our blessings are spiritual now & physical in the new creation

Leadership
in Lockdown

the Fellowship of Independent
Evangelical Churches

Leadership in Lockdown

the Fellowship of Independent
Evangelical Churches

Leadership
in Lockdown

Coronavirus Guidance Update

the Fellowship of Independent
Evangelical Churches

England

- From 8 March meet one other person outdoors (not just for exercise)
- Weddings with 6 people only until 29 March (not limited to “exceptional circumstances”)
- From 29 March meet max 6 people / 2 households outdoors (including private gardens)
- No change on guidance against singing indoors or outdoors
- No promise of end to social distancing & face coverings indoors after 21 June
- Possibility of reintroduction restrictions Autumn
- Possibility of special Easter dispensation?

Leadership
in Lockdown

the Fellowship of Independent
Evangelical Churches

Scotland

- 12 March 4 adults from 2 households can meet outdoors (including gardens)
- 12 March 4 teenagers can meet outdoors
- 26 March Churches reopen for up to 50 people with 2m social distancing
- 2 April “stay at home” to “stay local”
- 17 May 4 adults from 2 households can meet indoors

Leadership
in Lockdown

the Fellowship of Independent
Evangelical Churches

Wales

- 14 March “stay at home” changed to “stay local” (ends altogether 27 March)
- 14 March 4 people from 2 households can socialise outdoors (including gardens)

Leadership
in Lockdown

the Fellowship of Independent
Evangelical Churches

Leadership in Lockdown
